— Welcome to — WACO

Conveniently located on I-35 in the center of the state, just 90 miles from Dallas and Austin, Waco has long been known as the “Heart of Texas.”

Named after the Waco Indian tribe, the town was incorporated in 1856 and was the crossroads of early Texas. The Chisholm and Shawnee Trails both came through Waco on their way to northern cattle markets.

Today, Waco is a diverse, bustling city of 130,194, with a university, two colleges, over 40 hotels and 300+ restaurants. We are home to the famous Magnolia Market, owned by HGTV “Fixer Upper” stars Chip and Joanna Gaines, and the home of Dr Pepper.

Explore our lively cultural district. Discover open-air festivals and concerts by the river, top sporting events, a popular Saturday morning farmers market, “First Fridays” downtown, theatre, movies, live music (of all kinds), rodeo, comedy, dance, art galleries, and a world-class symphony orchestra.

HISTORIC SUSPENSION BRIDGE (1870)

Waco's Suspension Bridge is the oldest suspension bridge still in use in Texas. Built in 1870, it was the first bridge to span the mighty Brazos River. Cattle drives crossed the river using the bridge, following the course of the Chisholm Trail or Shawnee Trail. An official Chisholm Trail marker can be seen on the east side of the bridge. On the west side, in Indian Spring Park, the "Branding the Brazos" cattle drive sculpture group pays homage to Waco's role in the historic Texas cattle drives.

Washington Ave. at University Parks Drive to Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. at Elm St.

RIVERWALK

The Riverwalk is found on both sides of the Brazos River in downtown Waco. On the west side, the paved walk extends from Baylor University all the way to McLennan Community College, via Cameron Park. The riverwalk trail within Cameron Park is not paved, while the rest of the trail is made of concrete and is ADA accessible.

Entrances all along the Brazos River. ADA accessible entrance near Washington Ave., and University Parks Dr.

DINING

We couldn't possibly list all the great restaurants in the Waco area. However, we can point you to some good resources.

- Visit our website at wacoheartoftexas.com/visitors/dining/ for a list you can sort by cuisine type or area. These can also be printed from the website.
- Visit the Waco Tourist Information Center and ask our Tourism Counselors for recommendations. Pick up a “Greater Waco Directory and Map” at the Tourist Information Center, for a listing of downtown restaurants.
