

Naturally Waco

Waco Suspension Bridge & Cameron Park

101 N. University Parks Dr.

The Waco Suspension Bridge stands as an icon of Waco history and is the centerpiece of many community gatherings. Here, photo opportunities abound. Explore the bridge, then head into Cameron Park, 416 acres of scenic space just waiting to be explored by foot, bike, car, horseback - you name it.

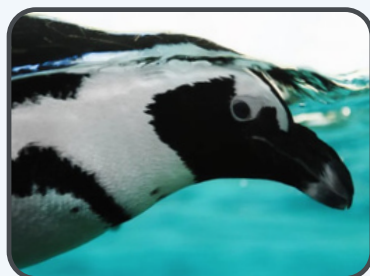

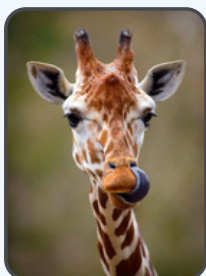

The Earle-Harrison House and Pape Gardens

Allow 1 hour to tour, 15 mins driving and loading

1901 N. 5th Street

Prized for the beauty of its botanical garden and grounds, as much for the antebellum house itself, visitors to this Greek-Revival mansion are wowed by towering oaks, a lily pond, and a huge rose arbor.

Cameron Park Zoo

Allow 2 hours or more to tour

1701 N. 4th

Endangered African penguins are our new celebrity crush at the beautiful Cameron Park zoo. The penguins and other creatures who call this award-winning, natural habitat zoo home not only live here, but flourish.

Waco Mammoth National Monument

*Allow 45 mins to tour, 20 mins driving and loading
6220 Steinbeck Bend*

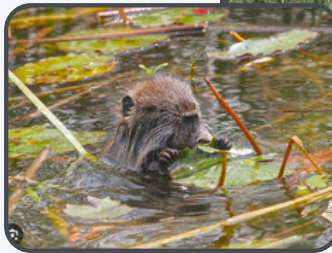

"The nation's first and only recorded discovery of a nursery herd of Pleistocene mammoths." - National Park Service.

This fascinating find is still an active dig site! Ask about Jr. Ranger program, or add on fun like the Big Dig, Mighty Molars or Fossil Fun programs.

Lake Waco Wetlands

*Allow 1.5 hour to tour, 30 mins driving and loading
1752 Eichelberger Crossing Road. 76633*

A favored place among birdwatchers, this peaceful habitat is home to aquatic plants, reptiles, mammals, amphibians and some 185 species of migratory birds.

Carleen Bright Arboretum

*Allow 1.5 hour to tour, 20 mins driving and loading
9001 Bosque Blvd.*

Manicured paths lead to wilder trails at this stunning 16-acre site. A meditation garden, a certified Monarch way-station, a koi pond, fountains, a rose garden and more await explorers of all abilities. Two gardens maintained by area Master Gardeners showcase native plants.

Waco Welcome Center staffers are always happy to assist as you plan your visit!
Call (254) 750-8610 or (254) 750-8696.