

Retail Therapy

LaSalle Shoppes & Central Goods

1800 Austin Avenue #3 / 1701 Franklin

If vintage is your vibe, these two places are a must see! Laverty's, too, is treasured beyond Waco (check their facebook for next opening).

Central Goods

Washington, Austin & Franklin Avenues

Boutiques and specialty shops abound on Austin, Franklin and Washington avenues, both downtown and in the “uptown” district.

Lanes

1601 Austin Avenue

If you know, you know. A place for those who enjoy the finer things in life, look to Lanes for home decor, gifts, china, crystal, collectibles, jewelry and much. much more.

Lanes on Austin Avenue

Spice Village

2nd and Franklin

Spice Village is home to some 50 individual boutiques all in one sprawling, 30,000-square-foot store. Search Spice for home décor, gifts, gourmet food, clothing, jewelry and a wealth of Waco and Baylor souvenirs. There really is something here for everyone.

Magnolia Market

601 Webster

A large retail campus in the middle of downtown, Magnolia Market offers the original store along with other boutiques spread across three city blocks. A coffee shop, a bakery and a collection of food trucks await when it's time to refuel.

Magnolia Market

Retail Therapy

These Western wear stores will have you outfitted in Texas style in no time:

- Tecovas
- Standard Hat Works
- El Rio Western Wear
- El Primo Western Wear
- Cactus Western Wear
- Boot Barn
- Cavender's Boot City

Fabled Bookshop & Cafe

215 S. 4th Street

Fabled offers new books in general categories, unique toys and gifts, and cafe serving coffee, food, beer and wine. Be sure to look for the secret wardrobe entrance into the children's section - a nostalgic and whimsical touch for readers of all ages.

Cameron Trading Company

618 Austin Avenue

Check out two full floors of antiques, collectibles, vintage, shabby chic and more.

Downtown Waco Farmer's Market

500 Washington (moving soon to Bridge St)

The Market is open every Saturday from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. and features local agricultural producers and artisan vendors. During the spring and fall - on Wednesday evenings - the market crosses the river for the Bridge Street Farmers Market from 5-8 p.m.

Retail Therapy

Bear Mountain

4425 West Waco Drive

Waco's favorite destination for outdoor gear and bikes, Bear Mountain is like a little REI, but better!

Simply Irresistible

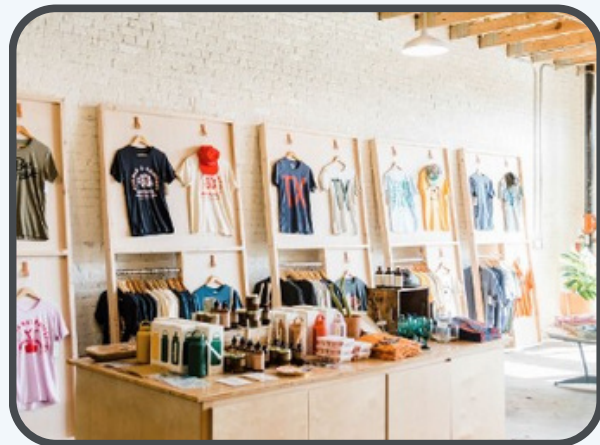

1018 Austin Avenue

The name says it all. This store offers an eclectic mix of home decor, gifts, furnishings, women's wear and more.

Ramble & Co.

216 S. 11th

This women-run shop specializes in hand-printed graphic tees + sweatshirts with a few specially curated gift items.

Hey Sugar

324 S. 6th Street

Fuel your shopping frenzy with a stop at Waco's favorite candy store. Your sweet tooth will thank you.

Waco also has familiar stores like Dillard's, Kendra Scott, Cabela's Target, Marshall's, Home Goods, World Market, PetSmart, Petco, DSW, Dick's Sporting Goods, Academy, JC Penney, Michael's and more.